Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Millbay Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Millbay Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by the concern/complaint being raised in the first instance with the Head of Centre or Deputy Head. They will then give careful consideration and make a decision as to the appropriateness of proceeding with the concern/complaint.

A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone, or in writing to the Head of Centre.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- the Head of Centre who will respond as appropriate according to the JCQ and awarding bodies guidelines.

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 7 calendar days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- complete a complaints and appeals form in writing.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for the complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- two working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- be submitted in writing by again completing a complaints and appeals form.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- two weeks.

The appeal will be referred to:

- the Head of Centre.

It will be the responsibility of Head of Centre, Deputy Headteacher or Examinations Officer to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.

Additional details on the internal appeals process:

Not applicable.
